

The Road to Emmaus

As we traveled the road to Emmaus
A stranger came by our side
He opened our minds to the scriptures
And talked of the one that had died
The one who was crucified

Our hearts were burning within us
So clear our minds had become
We wondered who was this stranger
Who taught us just like a son
Like a father to his son

Chorus;

Did you not hear of the one to come
Emmanuel, the firstborn son
The sign of Jonah, the word fulfilled
Who came to life by God`s own will

The time it passed away quickly
The shadows of day grew long
The stranger dined at our table
Broke bread and then he was gone
We saw him and then he was gone

We traveled the road from Emmaus
Back to Jerusalem
The others heard our confession
They wondered if he was the one
The prophesied firstborn son

Suddenly there stood Messiah
Emmanuel that was to come
Calming their fears, he spoke gently
Showing the he was the one
The risen firstborn Son
