

The Early and the Latter Rains

Guitar lead sheet

Am G
My Father is the Husbandman
Am
who waits for the Latter Rains
Am
He plants his vineyard on the Earth
G
then showers it with rain.

Chorus;

Fm G Am
Come, O` clouds, let it rain
Fm G Am
Nourish these plants in my name.
Fm G
Come all ye vines,
C Am
Come bring forth your wine
Fm G Am
So, I can drink after the rains

Am G Am
The spirit of the Father showers us like rain
Am G Am
measured in due season and it always stays the same
Fm G Am Fm G Am
Come, O` Spirit of truth, bestow your gifts anew
Fm G C Am
Guide us in the way, remember our day
Fm G Am
after the early and the latter rains.

Am G Am
The spirit that is from above is gentle and is kind
Am G Am
But wars against the evil that dwells within our minds
Fm G Am
Stir up the spirit in you
Fm G Am
Like a fire let it burn bright and true
Fm G C Am
Quench not the flame, steadfast remain
Fm G Am
After the early and the latter rains

Am G Am
The spirit of the latter days will pour out on all flesh
Am G Am
The chosen will see visions, dreams upon their beds
F G Am
And the wise shall be like the Sun
Fm G Am
Their light will be seen by everyone
F G C Am
Like the stars that shine, ever divine
F G Am
After the early and the latter rains