

Were you there?

*Yahovah called out of the whirlwind
To answer his servant Job;
Were you there, Where you there?
When I laid the foundation of the Earth
And measured it's length and width
Were you there, Were you there?*

*Answer me, if you can
Speak to me, like a man*

*Have you walked the paths of the light
Do you know where darkness dwells
Have you seen the treasures of hail
I've saved for war?*

*When the morning stars sang together
And the sons of El shouted for joy!
Where you there, Where you there?
When the seas burst forth like a baby
Born from her mother's womb
When I said; Stop right here, proud waves!*

*Answer me, if you can
Gird you loins like a man*

*Can you bind the Pleiades?
Can you loose Orion's belt
Can you lead the Bear with her cubs
Throughout the year?*

*Does the hawk fly high by your wisdom
When it spreads it's wings to the sought
Does the Eagle mount up at your command?
Can you hunt the prey for the Lioness
Or satisfy the hunger of her young
Do you know where she lies in wait?*

*Show yourself as I am
With Majesty, by your hand*

*Can you lift you voice to the clouds
So their waters cover you
Can you send the lightning forth before your face?*

*Then Job answered Yahovah in the whirlwind
He said; I spoke but I did not understand
Forgive me, Forgive me
You see I've heard the things of you
My ears have heard of you
But now mine eyes see you.*
